The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant,

Reza Behram Tabatabai is hereby committed on Counts 1 through 55 of the Second Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 87 months. This term consists of 60 months on Count 1 and 87 months on each of Counts 2-55 of the Second Superseding Indictment. All terms are to be served concurrently. Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1-55, all such terms to run concurrently, under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318 and obey all laws;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. 4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;

form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, without the prior written approval of the Probation officer; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his/her true legal name;

8. The defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer;

9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer a signed release authorizing credit checks and an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation, as to all sources and amounts of income and all expenses of the defendant. In addition, the defendant shall provide federal and state income tax returns as requested by the Probation Officer;

The defendant shall not apply for any loan or open any line of credit without prior approval of the Probation Officer and shall maintain a single personal bank account into which all income, financial proceeds and gains shall be deposited and from which all expenses shall be paid. All other bank accounts shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer;

11. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $5,500, which is due immediately.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $2,235,801.22, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the Probation Office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims. If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment. Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendant(s), Edmond Masjedi, Touraj Benshian, Masoud Rahmani, and Masoud Sabet (Docket No. 2:05-cr-00744-FMC), for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05. Interest on the restitution is stayed.

The Court recommends: a) that the defendant participate in and complete the Bureau of Prisons' 500 hour drug treatment program while incarcerated; b) that the defendant be designated to the Terminal Island federal facility; c) that the defendant be evaluated for any early release programs pursuant to the Second Chance Act or any other early release program(s) available.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
